

My Great Grammar Glossary

Year 3

Words	Definition	Example
adjective	A describing word found before a noun or after a verb.	A sticky bun. He was surprised.
noun	noun – names for people, places and things
	common noun - Objects or things which you can see and touch (not unique names of people, places and things).	dog, child, day, computer
	<pre>proper noun - Unique names given to people, places and things (must start with a capital letter).</pre>	Fred, Stockwood, Monday, Xbox collective noun - A word which groups nouns.	class of children, herd of sheep verb	verb - A word which tells us what someone or something is doing or feeling (can be present, past or future).	He lives in Bristol. She was crying. I feel happy. I am tall.
adverb	A word that describes a verb often ending in 'ly'.	Ben soon started snoring loudly and quickly.
preposition	A word which tells us where something or someone is in time or place.	Behind, beyond, on, close She'll be back from Peru in two weeks.
conjunction	A word used to link parts of a sentence together (a type of connective).	but, because, or, yet, so, how, whether, when article	Three words that introduce a noun (the, an, a) (these are a type of determiner).	the, an a determiner	A word which introduces and clarifies a noun.	the, a, an (articles) this, that, some, every my, your, one, two, pronoun	A word which replaces a noun that has already been mentioned.	John put his hat on and he left. That is a good idea.
subject	The subject of a sentence is the person, place, thing, or idea that is doing or being something.	I am, you are, he is, Rita went out. That is uncertain Children like dogs.
synonym	Words are synonyms if they have the same meaning.	Old, ancient, elderly Small, minute, tiny homophone	Words are homophones if they look different, sound the same and mean different things.	hear, here some, sum

My Great Grammar Glossary Year 3

Groups of words	Definition	Example phrase	A group of words without a verb or any punctuation, which wouldn't make sense as a sentence on its own.	the dog and the chicken noun phrase	A phrase that tells you more about a noun, without a verb.	the long, winding road people with glasses clause	A group of words containing a verb which makes sense on its own but has no punctuation.	the small mouse squeaked sentence	A group of words containing at least one verb and subject, which makes sense on its own. It can be a statement, question, exclamation or command.	Noisily the rain crashed down onto the golden leaves.
main clause	A group of words which contains a subject and a verb, which makes sense on its own.	The man wore a purple hat.
subordinate clause	A group of words that gives us extra information and doesn't make sense on its own.	He watched her as she disappeared.
relative clause	A 'w' clause is a type of subordinate clause. Often starting with who, which, when or where, adds in extra information.	The boy, who had brown hair, tripped over.
adverbial phrase	A phrase which tells you more about a verb.	She brushes her hair from top to bottom.			